ELECTION WAR RE-PEATS
MAJOR FEARS WITH SMASHUP

New York, Dec. 13.—The American league simply will not tolerate John M. Ward being elected president of the National league to succeed John A. Heydler, according to Ban B. Johnson, American league president, who arrived in New York today. If he is elected, said Johnson, it means war.

As outlining his position in the matter on the eve of the National league meeting, Johnson gave out a letter which he has sent to August Herrmann, chairman of the committee who was instrumental in ending the war between the National and American leagues in 1903. The letter, dated Chicago, November 30, and addressed to Herrmann at Cincinnati, says:

"When information was brought to me from an authentic source that John M. Ward was seriously considered for the presidency of the National league, I was astonished and surprised. I raised the question as to the sincerity of purpose of our organization. Since the signing of the peace pact with the Chicago club, the national agreement, organized baseball has moved along in a broad, straight channel, with moderate friction. The chief snag encountered was our effort to recover Player George Davis after he had been awarded to the Chicago American league club at the Cincinnati peace conference. Mr. Ward, acting as attorney for Player Davis, drew up the original contract with the Chicago club. It was a three-year agreement, irrevocable and irrevoked. At a fixed date Davis signed another contract with the New York National league club.

Davis Stays.
The New York club sought to retain Davis, regardless of the Cincinnati award, and, in fact, did use him in one game, despite a vigorous protest from the American league. The Chicago club was finally obliged to go into the courts to enforce its contract, and John M. Ward represented the player in the proceedings. The cost of litigation to the Chicago club exceeded $5,000. The entire transaction was clearly a conspiracy and a violation of the peace pact entered into at Cincinnati.

"American league interests must be considered and weighed in the construction of the national commission each year. It is far from our purpose to say, or even suggest, who the National league should elect as its president, but common sense and the interests of other parties to the agreement should be considered if the present cordial relations are to continue.

"The unbounded prosperity the game has enjoyed under its present government should serve as a ray of hope to unprejudiced acts that might tend to destroy a healthful, sound and sportsmanlike condition in baseball."

Stand by Johnson.

The American league club owners say they will back up Johnson in anything he does.

Ward's election to the National league presidency appears by no means assured. President Murphy of the Chicago club says that Ward "will be elected on the first ballot" but President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh club claims that Ward can not command more than four votes.

If the vote is four for Ward and four for Heydler, the Pittsburgh club will have to go under the provisions of the National league constitution.

A majority of committee candidates have been named thus far. Almost all of them will be here to attend the Pittsburgh club's banquet on Wednesday. It is expected that Joseph D. O'Brien as its compromise candidate, while Heydler, Dreyfuss and Dwyer find they cannot elect Heydler, they are likely, it is believed, to place in nomination Robert Brown of Louisville.

"Adrian Anson has little or no chance," according to one of the magnates, "and his appearance here is regretted, it being the general opinion that whoever was responsible for the veteran's making this trip eastward."

Stanley Robinson, the St. Louis club owner, announced he was on hand here today, but because of a cold he will not arrive.

Friends of Fogel were quoted here today as asserting that "as yet he has not pledged himself to the Murphy-Ebbetts faction, and he will come here ready to swing his vote with every man who will give him some good players."

If this is the case, Philadelphia's vote is unlikely to go to Heydler, as the Hermann-Dreyfuss-Dwyer combination has stated that they would not elect its candidate by making any trades.

Opposed to Election.
New York, Dec. 13.—Johnson said tonight that he was unalterably opposed to Charles W. Murphy—Ward's chief backer—becoming a dictator in the baseball world.

"His policies are far from being in line with the ideas of men who have been working for the future and know conditions of the American league president," and would be ruinous to baseball if allowed to continue. The American league desires to continue on friendly relations with its National rival, but cannot do so if Murphy is to dictate the policy of the National league and elect a president who has consistently tried to tear down the fabric we have established.

"Mr. Murphy, I believe, when he first arrived here, that the American league was in favor of a longer season, and that all our club owners advocated it. I have talked with every man who has a financial interest in our league, and cannot find anyone who desires to have us play 154 games."

"Mr. Murphy also has intimated that we junior leaguers are attempting to dictate to the senior leaguers, and that we should elect a president from the National league. This is wrong, but we are surprised that National league club owners should try to remove from office a man like John M. Ward."

Concerning the case of the attempted bribery of the umpires, the play-off game between the Chicago and New York Nationals, on October 5, 1908, Johnson said tonight that new evidence was sent to him last summer. He will confer with his colleagues on the national commission for review.

Johnson is not altogether satisfied that, when the National league turned over arbitrators in the bribery cases, the national commission, all players in the game were sent along. At that time a New York physician was accused and was made the scapegoat of the situation, and the physician was merely the representative of the "man higher up," and he believes he has evidence that will enable the national commission to go after this individual.

The national commission had two short informal sessions today. Meetings will be held tomorrow and Thursday, at which the new evidence concerning the umpire bribery is to be gone over.

The political end of the National league meeting has absolutely overwhelmed the trading side. Managers of the American, National, Eastern and Western leagues are here, ready to make deals, but on account of the possible rupture of friendly relations between the two big organizations, swapping players is a secondary consideration.

The National league meeting is slated to start at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, but the general impression is that the gathering will be late in getting under way, as the board of directors will meet first. All National and American league club owners are here, except Thomas J. Naves of Washington. He is expected in the morning.

John T. Brush of New York, on account of ill-health, will not be able to attend the National league meeting and will be represented by Secretary Fred N. Knowles.

At Cincinnati.
Cincinnati, Dec. 13.—A close friend of President Herrmann said yesterday that if Ward was victorious in the election in New York, Herrmann and Dreyfuss would both leave the National league, and that they probably would do so within the next few days. Herrmann's friend also said that if Ward were elected Cincinnati and Pittsburgh would be in a ten-club circuit for the first year in the American league. After one season of this, the league would be changed again to an eight-club circuit, Detroit and some other city being handed over to the American association.

LANKY MAC IN BATTLE ROYAL;
FAVORITE UNTIL HIT ON FINGER

FLOYD M'FARLAND.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
New York, Dec. 13.—The riders who completed the six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden last week went to the Hotel Bartholdi at Twenty-third street and Broadway to be paid off this afternoon, and several of them offered their compliments to one another with their fists.

After a three-minute fight in which Walter Demara, the Salt Lake City sprinter, his trainer, "Billy" Bolles, and last year's champion, Floyd McFarland, were notably interested, Demara fled into the bar with his left eye completely closed and his nose out.

He had hardly sat down at a table when Bolles and McFarland, accompanied by a number of rubbers and trainers, entered the room and there was some table jumping and some more smashing with fists. Demara went down in a heap.

Some one then hit Mac on the left hand, the middle finger of which was broken last week, causing his retirement from the race, and then the melee became general.

NEW MEN MAKE HIGH WRESTLING FANS SHOW
SCHOOL VETERANS WORK INTEREST IN MATCH

Yesterday saw the beginning of a strenuous week at the Salt Lake High school in the basketball line. Yesterday there were just three teams on the floor, the Coach's convention was held, and the team was lined up against the other two teams, each playing a half, and the form was set for several of the new men means that the old-timers will have to put in some extra hours if they are to keep their position.

McIntyre, Atkins and Wheeling, all strong men, are fighting for the center position, and the club members, who are difficult to get a choice is made. Atkins is a wonderful jumper, but does not possess the lasting qualities of either McIntyre or Wheeling. Last year he was a first-class player, but he has not finished his hard football season as yet, and he is not yet in the best of his condition. He is a good worker, and he is a good player, and he is a good man.

Arrangements are being made to meet the university and the Y. M. C. A. teams during the week.

Payson is looking forward to a trial for the Black warriors with a view of making the defeat recently received at their hands in football appear somewhat smaller.

Romey is trying to schedule a game with the H. T. B. club for Wednesday, while letters are expected daily from American Fork, Lehi, Mant, Weber Stake, Granite Stake, Ephraim and Ogden. Manager Romney wants a game with the U. S. University for the early part of next week if arrangements can be made.

CURTISS GLIDER TO BE

What promises to be one of the features of the Salt Lake automobile show was assured yesterday, when F. J. Irving of the Hill, Blake & Irving company, which is to open a Morris automobile agency here, announced that he would exhibit a Curtiss bi-plane glider at the "big" show at Boston the glider was one of the main attractions.

Irving, who has been experimenting with the glider on Staten Island, says that he will give a demonstration here. The glider is an exact model of the Curtiss aeroplane, with the exception of the motor. The gliders have been used extensively to show the aeroplane principle, and flights in them have reached a height of fifty feet, the motor alone being used to keep up the flight. They are built to show how the pressure of the air works to lift a heavier-than-air machine. Only lately was their manufacture perfected so that a perfect balance was reached.

One of the experiments to be shown here will be the attaching of the glider to an automobile by ropes, the planes lifting the glider and a passenger on a ground when the automobile is started. A flight of this kind was maintained in Boston for five miles.

NATIONAL Y. M. C. A. MEET.
New York, Dec. 13.—National athletic meet for members of the Y. M. C. A., the first of its kind ever held under the auspices of this organization, is scheduled to take place in New York City in the last week of January, 1910.

Association of many cities, including Salt Lake City, have already signified their intention of entering teams.

As a forerunner to the big inter-association track meet as planned above, the boys' twenty-five-mile relay race will be held Wednesday night. In this 100 boys will run against each other, each covering a distance of 2 1/2 miles in the race New York, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Fresno, Salt Lake and other cities will enter teams.

The Salt Lake boys have been training for over a month for the race, and there is confidence of a fine showing. Some enthusiastic association members say that Salt Lake will win.

The running of the race will attract a big crowd, and the big race promises to offer about as good excitement as could be asked. The public is invited to attend the race, which will be held at the University, Coach Conville of the High school and Elwood Brown of the Y. M. C. A. as timers.

The winning team gets an elaborate championship banner, while there will be individual prizes for the best individual time. The meet was arranged by the National Y. M. C. A. Association, the athletic ability of the boys of the east, middle west and Pacific coast. Salt Lake expects to send a strong team.
